He Finally Lands Safely, But Paralyzed With Fear-Peffer and Polk to Speak at the Alliance Rally.

RALEIGH, N. C., August 21.-[Special.]-A sharp electric storm prevailed here this evening about 7 o'clock, and in the midst of it, while sharp flashes and reports were following each other in quick succession, a flame shot off of the switchboard box in the office of the Telephone Exchange, and the occupants of the office saw to their horror that the entire switchboard had been burned out by electricity and that the woodwork was on fire and in flames, while hissing blue jets of flames shot out of the crack in the door of the box. A fire alarm was quickly sent in and the water was soon put on and the fire extinguished, though not until the connec-tions of nearly all of the telephones in the city had been destroyed.

COLONIA POLE'S WAR RECORD. War to the hilt of the knife has been de-clared between Colonel L. L. Polk, president of the National Farmers' Alliance, and the News and Observer of this city. President Polk's organ here, the Progressive Farmer, is kept busy defending its chief, and this week goes for the News and Observer, whereupon the latter in its reply, among other things, it is amusing to witness the insistance of the Progressive Farmer that it and Colonel Polk constitute the Alliance. It studies to keep prominent in its columns the idea that every criticism of Colonel Polk is an act of hostility to the Alliance. There never was any-thing more ridiculous and contemptible than the effort of the Progressive Farmer to connect, as inseparable, the interest of the farmers with the political interest of Colonel Polk.
